Dear Wim,
 What a wonderful day today is! Thanks to your healing, the fluid in between my wife's chest & lungs is gone!
 The doctor found it hard to believe & called another doctor to confirm. And it was confirmed, it's gone!
 Furthermore, your remote viewing that you said the fluid is not inside the lungs but between the chest & lungs was proven correct by the X-Ray last week!
 I am in deep gratitude to you & am so happy that I found you. Thank you very much & may God bless you!
 Sincerely,
 Michael Lawrence

COLORADO

Several mountain peaks within the San Juan Mountains of western Colorado are called Red Mountain due to their red hue from iron ore rocks. Red Mountain Pass, at the base of a set of Red Mountains, harbors the ghost town mining camp Red Mountain Town.

Hi Wim,
 wanted to thank you for all of the help
 you have given me.
 It's pretty rare when you find someone like yourself who gives so easily & freely of themselves to anyone who asks. Thank you again.

HECETA HEAD LIGHTHOUSE #33
 The rugged beauty of the Oregon Coast is punctuated by the 56-foot tall Heceta Head Lighthouse. Built in 1894, the light which towers 205 feet above the waves, is still shining. Located ten miles north of Florence and twelve miles south of Yachats, direct access is through Devil's Elbow State Park.
